

Title:

6 Things to do if involved in a Motorcycle Accident

Word Count:

336

Summary:

Motorcycle accidents have a reputation for being some of the deadliest. Motorcycles offer litt

Keywords:

personal-injury, bankruptcy, social-security-disability, workers-compensation

Article Body:

Motorcycle accidents have a reputation for being some of the deadliest. Motorcycles offer litt

Usually, motorcycle accidents are not the biker's fault. Due to the size difference between a

Some shocking statistics from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration show that mot

If you are involved in a motorcycle accident it is important to remember the following things:

1. Report the accident to police. The police report is helpful to your auto accident inju
2. Record the names and statements of witnesses to your accident. Take pictures and recor
3. Do not speak with any insurance agents or adjusters that may show up at the scene. Thi
4. Call your insurance company to report the accident. Do not speak with the other party'
5. Even if you feel you haven't sustained a serious injury, it is a good idea to get che
6. Contact a motorcycle accident injury lawyer as soon as possible.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>