Article Body:

It was December 26,2004 a beautiful sunny day. There were vacationers all over the gorgeous Asia. Some of the more popular vacation spots that were affected the most were Sri Lanka, South India

Sri Lanka one of the hardest hit places came up with an idea they called "Io Vado A Sri Lanka"

The idea was that the Italian media would share their experience on the island and would be earning

Fortunately the travel industry was not going to stand for this. They have been working hard since

One other thing the travel industry has been doing and will continue doing is giving advisory

Fortunately for everyone tourists have begun to realize that a tsunami of this magnitude is rare
