

Title:

Are You A Potential Crime Victim?

Word Count:

841

Summary:

Follow these suggestions and avoid becoming the next crime victim.

Keywords:

crimes, robberies, larcenies, snatches, pickpocket, subway, bar, public places, cell phones, ipods, wall

Article Body:

I've been in law enforcement for 17 years and have a great deal of experience working in the s

Unattended Property

Many people in the city become a victim to this crime. This mainly happens when someone is in gyms, churches, schools, your place of business, just about any public place. To help avoid this when playing sports or when you are at the beach.

Pickpocket

Otherwise known as a Grand Larceny in the Penal Law. This usually occurs when someone removes just be aware of what is going on around you, criminals will strike when someone is not paying

Snatches

More famously known to the public as a purse or chain snatch. There are many new snatches out and getaway. Right now cell phones seem to be the most popular. The best way to avoid this from on your cellphone, be aware of your surroundings. Place yourself in a position where it would

Robberies

A Robbery is when someone takes property of another by using force. That force can be physical force to steal that money, cell phone, ipod, etc., instead of just snatching it. So if you follow hallway after entering turn around and leave. Use extreme caution and make sure no one is following Follow these safety guidelines and you will definitely reduce your chances of becoming a victim. Stay safe!

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>