

Title:

Cow Brings Better Life To Orphans in Uganda

Word Count:

349

Summary:

Geofrey Okello of Uganda was just 14 in 1998 when AIDS turned his life upside down. That was w

Keywords:

Cow Brings Better Life To Orphans in Uganda

Article Body:

Geofrey Okello of Uganda was just 14 in 1998 when AIDS turned his life upside down. That was w

His mother did the best she could but she too was sick. When she died in 2002, Geofrey, then 1

The family often went to bed hungry as Geofrey scratched out a meager living selling corn and

Geofrey seized the opportunity and worked hard to learn how to care for the dairy cow that Hei

Last year, Geofrey received a cow, which he named Margaret, after his mother.

"My mother provided us life and did all she could for a better future. Now my cow provides thi

His small yard has changed from hard-packed red clay to fertile plots of organic squash, green

He pays his siblings' school tuition with income he earns from selling milk and now believes s

"There are others just like me because the AIDS epidemic goes on," he said. "Soon I will pass

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>