

Title:

Criminal Record - Holes In Reporting

Word Count:

563

Summary:

A look at the problem with reporting the final disposition of a criminal record from the initi

Keywords:

criminal record

Article Body:

Those who think that getting information on a person with a criminal record is as easy as pick

In 2001, states maintained criminal records for over 64 million people, but upon investigation

There is a process in place that creates a criminal history record. In this process you have

To give examples we have the following:

A person is arrested on suspicion of murder. A few days later before a trial date can be set,

Let's take this one step further. The person is arrested for the same crime and goes to trial

In the case of a person who is actually convicted of a crime, the final disposition is with th

The problem with the system, is that all of these final dispositions are recorded in different

In surveys that were conducted it was estimated that about 46% of state agencies did not have

Most of the problem with the system itself is in delays; the delay to get a speedy trial, the

One thing the survey didn't ask is what each agency felt was the solution to this problem. Ma

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>