

Title:

DON'T ASSUME YOU HAVE A SAFE AND SECURE HOTEL ROOM

Word Count:

743

Summary:

Most people believe that once they are in thier hotel rooms that they are safe from predators

Keywords:

travel safety, travel security, personal security, hotel safety

Article Body:

I'm sitting here trying to decide on what to write about tonight and my wife is packing for her

Some reasons you never really here about crime at hotels are that victims are usually from out

In a scenario familiar to most overnight business travelers and to a lesser extent the vacatio

1. When you first enter your room prop the door open, turn on the lights, and check the closet

2. Check that all connecting doors, windows and sliding doors are locked. If at all possible,

3. Once you lock the door and attach the safety chain, check the diagram on the back of the do

4. Make sure you double lock your door and then attach the door chain. You might even bring a

All simple things that we really know we should do, we just think to ourselves, "It can't happ

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>