

Title:

Dumaguete: The City of Gentle People

Word Count:

409

Summary:

Dumaguete is the city that is fondly called as "The City of Gentle People". Filled with nature

Keywords:

Dumaguete, Siquijor, Philippines, Negros Oriental, Apo Island

Article Body:

Dumaguete is the capital city of the Province of Negros Oriental. It is located within the Neg

Dumaguete has a land area of about 3,551 hectares. On November 24, 1948, Dumaguete became a ch

Dumaguete is rich with historical sites as well as tourist attractions, both man-made and natu

Rizal Boulevard in Dumaguete is named after the Philippine national hero Jose P. Rizal who mad

Natural tourist attractions are abundant in Dumaguete. There are beaches, forests, caves, moun

Dumaguete is predominantly an agricultural city. The coconut and sugar cane products are the o

The construction industry is now growing in Dumaguete with the increase of the cement consumpt

The climate in Dumaguete City is great. The seasons are wet and dry seasons. June to November

Dumaguete has a seaport located on the eastern coast of Barangay Looc. The seaport has about 1

Dumaguete may be a small city but the city has many interesting sites that the people are prov

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>