

Title:

Guide to terrorism and world markets

Word Count:

542

Summary:

What worse could have happened to the US economy then the 9th September 2001? Some perverted r

Keywords:

terrorism, world, markets, financial, fear

Article Body:

What worse could have happened to the US economy then the 9th September 2001? Some perverted r

The world markets face the wrath of the terrorist activities in their faces. There is an overa

As a matter of fact, all sectors are put to a stand still due to these terror strikes. The dir

Such attacks also incur a direct burden on the defense budget. It goes without saying that the

The worst hit by terrorist activities is the third world countries. The terrorists make these

A joint effort by all the countries of the world, taking along the third world countries, is r

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>