

Title:

How Not to Lose 10000 Dollars in the Casinos

Word Count:

595

Summary:

I have recently been having some bad luck in the casinos, and this article is intended to help

Keywords:

casino, gambling, poker, entertainment and leisure, sports, recreation

Article Body:

For the last several years one Saturday of each month some friends and I would get in the car

We have never really been big gamblers we usually just stayed with the slots or the roulette t

So we all started playing poker in a weekly Friday night game together till we were good enoug

At first I was losing hand after hand but the more hands I played the better of an understandi

After about 2 or 3 months of this we decided it was time and we all drove to the casino to pla

We did ok for first timers, no one got rich but no one came home broke either. We decided that

Last month we decided to join this small tournament, the buy inn was only a few hundred each a

Before the tournament we had all agreed that if one of us won it we would go out and have a bi

I decided that I could turn this money into a much larger amount and since it was easy to win

Now from my personal experience I know that the Roulette table is a great way to double your m

So against the advice of all my friends I looked for a roulette table where the same color had Ever since that night I have not won anything I have played. The best piece of advice I can gi

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>