

Title:

How to Have Power over Others.

Word Count:

492

Summary:

To have the power of the Sphinx makes mere men to seem magical as if they controlled the force

Keywords:

psychic, mind control, JK Ellis, power, control

Article Body:

If power begins in controlling something, then are we powerless prior to controlling?

Yes and no.

We have potential, which is a power in itself, but unused and undirected potential is NOTHING.

Are we powerless prior to controlling?

I would say we are not powerless, but ignorant (Which is a version of powerlessness, I guess.)

We don't know that we have power and don't know to know to test it.

The end of all powerlessness begins with awareness.

A Samurai Warrior would learn this by practicing a meditation of sitting on the top of a mount

What is power?

What is power like?

How great is power?

Where is power now?

To Know. To Will. To Dare. To Keep Silent.

These were the powers of the Sphinx and they remain dormant in all of us to one degree or another.

You don't know what you don't know. Thus you must seek knowledge in whatever realm you wish to

You must Will and Dare to use that knowledge.

To keep silent. This is where power turns to craft. It is the most subtle application of power
