

Title:

Katrina: Victims For Life?

Word Count:

491

Summary:

Most of Katrina's victims lived their lives without a single tattered safety net in place, Poor

Keywords:

social issues,psychology,politics,economics,thought

Article Body:

There can be no debate about the horror of the World Trade Center attack. No conceivable ratio

Four years later, the survivors still mourn their loved ones and the world looks to ground zer

Only after the settlements were made were the cries of the families in Oklahoma heard. Those f

And now there are the victims of Katrina. Not only were hundreds of family members lost but, i

The financial safety nets of insurance, high pre-trauma earnings, and safety member retirement

Most of Katrina's victims lived their lives without a single tattered safety net in place. Poor

The political think tanks that worry if a nominee is conservative enough, the lobbyists busily

For those still living in shelters or staying at a hotel until the vouchers run out this month

After the photo-ops, the dramatic flyovers, and the congressional appropriation bills, our lea

Unless they are lucky enough to become the swing vote in a tight election, they will recede fr

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>