

Title:

Law Enforcement Officer Deaths Decline

Word Count:

359

Summary:

Fewer law enforcement officers died in the line of duty in 2005 than in previous years because

Keywords:

Law Enforcement Officer Deaths Decline

Article Body:

Fewer law enforcement officers died in the line of duty in 2005 than in previous years because

A recent report indicates that 153 law enforcement officers across the nation died in the line

During the 1970s, more than 220 officers were killed each year, making it the deadliest decade

California, which lost 17 officers over the past year, had the nation's most line-of-duty fata

"The fact remains that an officer dies nearly every other day, and we need to stay focused on

The NLEOMF and its partner organization, the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IA

According to the IACP Dupont Kevlar Survivors' Club®, which tracks incidents in which the armo

Because this is the second consecutive year in which traffic-related accidents either equaled

Every officer who died in the line of duty during 2005 will be honored at a Candlelight Vigil

"When law enforcement officers die in the line of duty, their families need strong support. Co

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>