

Title:

One Day In A Central Asian School For Children With Special Needs

Word Count:

504

Summary:

While working on a student practical task in one of the Universities of Asia, in Department of

Keywords:

Psychology, boarding school, ill children

Article Body:

While working on a student practical task in one of the Universities of Asia, in Department of

We were asked to put on white doctor smocks, and after that we entered the building. First thi

Then we were led to the girls' part of the boarding school. There were girls of different ages

These girls tried to hug us and we understood that they are in great need of love and attentio

In the boys' section of the school we saw very similar sad picture. About 35-40 children were

Having had finished our practice most of us confessed, that during several days after the boar

This boarding school and other similar places are a very sad unknown side of the otherwise bea

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>