

Title:

Teen Safety In The Workplace

Word Count:

266

Summary:

When teenagers go off to work--sometimes for the first time in their lives--parents want to know

Keywords:

Teen Safety In The Workplace

Article Body:

When teenagers go off to work-sometimes for the first time in their lives-parents want to know

Are teenagers safe in the workplace? Do they know what to watch out for in terms of safety? Co

&#8226; On average, 45 percent of American teens are employed each year-more than any other de

&#8226; More than three million U.S. teens enter the workforce every summer and thousands of t

&#8226; Nearly 200,000 adolescents suffer injuries on the job and approximately 70 die from th

&#8226; Teens have the highest rate of nonfatal work-related injuries, even though they encour

&#8226; The reasons for teen work-related accidents include lack of experience, gaps in curren

&#8226; The majority of deaths and injuries of teen workers on the job occur in retail stores

&#8226; Common potential hazards include automobile and machinery operation (for teens old eno

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>