

Title:

The Decline Of The Local Newspaper

Word Count:

561

Summary:

I have recently been hearing about how our local newspapers (in the UK) are falling into decli

Keywords:

news, newspapers, local, internet, satellite television, mobile phones, paper, football, sport

Article Body:

I have recently been hearing about how our local newspapers (in the UK) are falling into decli

I live in Birmingham and I am the type of person who loves to play and watch sports. Where I l

A few years ago the first place to read about these results and to see the updated football di

Other potential reasons for a decline in our local newspapers could include the fact that they

A number of our local newspapers have been taken over by some of the big news corporations who

We are now also able to watch the news twenty-four hours a day if we want to and if we of cour

Advertising revenue has greatly reduced in recent years for these local newspapers, this has a

In my opinion if the local newspapers are going to survive they need to fight back. They shoul

Advertising rates should be made more affordable with perks to encourage people to become long

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>