

Title:

U.S. Needs Comprehensive Immigration Reform

Word Count:

381

Summary:

The immigration debate is once again dominating the news as members of Congress focus on the l

Keywords:

U.S. Needs Comprehensive Immigration Reform

Article Body:

The immigration debate is once again dominating the news as members of Congress focus on the l

American lawmakers are now at a critical point. Enforcement-only legislation won't work and ha

In fact, during the past decade, the U.S. tripled the number of agents on the border, quintupl

Yet during the same time period, America saw record levels of illegal immigration, porous bord

We must learn from our mistakes, not repeat them. What we need is comprehensive, bipartisan im

Most are relatives of U.S. citizens and lawful residents or workers holding jobs that American

The Secure America and Orderly Immigration Act, introduced by Sen. John McCain, R-Ariz., Sen.

This "break-the-mold" worker program would significantly diminish illegal immigration by creat

In addition, reducing the decade-long backlog in family-based immigration would reunite famili

Congress and the administration must act wisely as they weigh their choices. We've had enough

Deborah Notkin is president of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. - NU

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>