

Title:

Volunteers Make A Difference In Their Communities

Word Count:

372

Summary:

For extraordinary efforts in serving others through volunteerism, 10 middle and high school st

Keywords:

Volunteers Make A Difference In Their Communities

Article Body:

For extraordinary efforts in serving others through volunteerism, 10 middle and high school st

Ranging in age from 11 to 18, the National Honorees in The Prudential Spirit of Community Award

&#8226; Evan Alicuben, 17, of Hilo, Hawaii, who spearheaded a project that placed "personal em

&#8226; Ellie Ambrose, 12, of Nashville, Tenn., who organized an annual carnival and a 5K race

&#8226; Alexander Lin, 13, of Westerly, R.I., who led a student community service group in a m

&#8226; Savannah Walters, 13, of Odessa, Fla., who is waging an extensive, multistate campaign

&#8226; Ajay Mangal, 18, of Pascagoula, Miss., who lost nearly all of his possessions when Hur

Other honorees made significant contributions to their communities by building a radio station

Conducted in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals, The Pru

Ten student volunteers have turned dedication into results, improving their communities and th

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>