

Title:

What Can You Do When Disaster Strikes Somewhere Else?

Word Count:

525

Summary:

Thousands of disasters occur every year. Each time one strikes, the victims of the event needs

Keywords:

giving, volunteer, donate, give, volunteering, time, help

Article Body:

Several of the largest natural disasters have occurred recently. These include the earthquake

The following are some of the ways you might contribute to others affected by a disaster:

1. Pray. If you believe that miracles happen every day, as I do, then prayer should be
2. Give Blood. There is always a need for blood. Especially when major disasters occur.
3. Send Notes. Give hope to the victims of the disaster as well as the relief workers b
4. Volunteer. Go with a group to the location of the disaster to be a part of the rebuild
5. Donate Funds. Make a financial contribution to organizations that support the victim
6. Donate Items. When disaster strikes, people can be without necessities for a long ti
7. Provide Shelter. If you are a property owner with vacant rental housing, you might h
8. Have a Fundraiser. If you cannot afford to donate funds, conduct a fundraising event
9. Purchase Items. Shop at stores and eat at restaurants that donate a portion of their

This list is a sample of things you could do. I challenge you to identify two or more ways you

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>