

Title:

Boston, a Bargain Travel Guide

Word Count:

1604

Summary:

Made famous by Revolutionary events, infamous by cold winters, & both by the World-Series winn

Keywords:

bus tours,bus tour

Article Body:

Restaurants

Made famous by Revolutionary events, infamous by cold winters, & both by the World-Series winn

sister Jimmy's BBQ (96 Winthrop St., Cambridge) - Enjoy a number of the best BBQ you can find

Grendel's Den (89 Winthrop Street, Harvard Square) - Stop by for the happy hour food specials

Fajitas & Ritas (25 West St., Downtown or 1237 Hancock St., Quincy) - it is easy to stuff your

McCormick & Schmick's (North Market Building, Faneuil Hall) - This upscale seafood restaurant

Sunset Grill & Tap (130 Brighton Ave., Allston) - While this bar doesn't have any drink special

Drink Specials

Roggie's Brew & Grille (356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton) - While this is definitely a Boston

Pour House Bar & Grill (909 Boylston Street, Fenway Kenmore) - widely known as a college stude

Activities

Beacon Hill Pub (149 Charles Street, Beacon Hill) - If you are looking to relive your college

Faneuil Hall Marketplace (Downtown) - More commonly referred to as Quincy Market, this marketp

Kayak the Charles (Charles River Canoe & Kayak, in Artesani Park in Allston/Brighton) - you ar

The Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum (280 The Fenway, Fenway Kenmore) - If the long Bostonian w

The Comedy Connection (Faneuil Hall Marketplace) Relax for a night & let the upcoming professi

Cheap Dates

South Street Diner (corner of Kneeland & South Sts, Beacon Hill) - Nothing beats sharing a bo

Mike's Pastry (300 Hanover St., in the North End) - need to show your date how sweet you can b

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>