Article Body:

Most industry insiders are predicting that this year more people will be jetting off on city breaks

Hostels

The number of backpackers hostels and independent youth hostels has surged in response to increasing

The package holiday for so long a staple of summer holidays has become chronically unfashionable

In light of this, people had to find some form of affordable accommodation on their holidays.

Hardly a new concept ~ youth hostels have been around for years now ~ the necessary tweaks remain

But with the internet, and a series of sites who allowed their customers to 'rate' hostels came

And just as the hostels have gained in popularity (and quality), so too has the rest of the budget

Cheap hotels

The cheap hotel market, so long, seemingly, a slightly complacent force reluctant to really compete

What's more many small hotels have realized that they can turn their size into a significant advantage

And there are times when even the most ardent backpacker or roving student traveler wants fresh

Bed & Breakfasts

Bed & breakfasts and guesthouses have also experienced a real resurgence in popularity in recent

Like the cheap hotel market they have responded well to a shift in the market, and the recent

Apartments

Hovering somewhere between the service provided by a backpackers hostel (with a kitchen and lounge)

The apartment concept can be a winning one, particularly for those traveling in groups or those

All in all, things have rarely looked as rosy for travelers with a budget.
