

Title:

How To Save Time & Money On Car Rental

Word Count:

1677

Summary:

Lowest Rates Vs. A Good Bargain

Many people approach Car Rental as a lowest-price-possible contest rather than to concentrate

The thing is, Car Rental market is very competitive one and rates differences for comparable

Keywords:

Car Rental, Rent A Car, Car Rental Lowest Rates, Car Rental Tips, Car Rental Advice

Article Body:

Lowest Rates Vs. A Good Bargain

Many people approach Car Rental as a lowest-price-possible contest rather than to concentrate

The thing is, Car Rental market is very competitive one and rates differences for comparable

Don't get us wrong, we don't like to pay higher prices more than you do. We do recommend to sh

All we say here you need to consider other things beside the price and when you compare please

Things to consider when ordering a rented a car

Who is using the car, are you by yourself on a business trip or you are traveling with the who

Do you need an Infant seat or a child booster? make sure it is mentioned clearly with your ord

Do you actually need the car in the town or city at the first few days? If not, consider to ta

Are you going to a very warm and humid destination? If yes, it's recommended to order a car wi

Most major rental car companies allow for unlimited mileage in the same state, but it's a good

As mentioned before price is not the only factor to consider when choosing a car rental compan

Frequent or Preferred Renter Programs and affiliations

Frequent renter programs, Like airlines and hotels, major car rental companies track their cus

Preferred renter clubs, Most major car rental companies also offer preferred renter programs o

While basic-level club memberships are often free, higher-level memberships (as in the Hertz #

If you're still faced with a steep rate, try getting discounts based on your affiliations with

In addition, always check for corporate rates if applicable to your situation.

Car Rental Insurance

Some of the Insurance terms seem to be confusing, let's try to clear them out first.

CDW - Collision Damage Waiver.

LDW - Loss Damage Waiver.

PDW - Physical Damage Waiver.

PAI - Personal Accident Insurance.

PEC - Personal Effects Coverage.

ALI - Additional Liability Insurance.

Many of the Credit Cards have most of these coverage, therefore it's not mandatory to purchase

Also be aware that your personal insurance probably doesn't apply to your rental car when traveling

Important things to check and do before leaving the Air-Port

After a long flight and the waiting in lines for your luggage and afterwards for your keys at the counter

Start by making a careful check around the car, look for any small dents or scratches, in case of damage

Open the trunk, make sure you have a spare tire, a jack and set of tools, there is nothing more to check

Many car companies will provide you with an extra key if you ask for one. This can come in handy if you lose

It is recommended to spend some time to get acquainted with the cars' features and switches, such as the

Make sure you have a map and it's better to spend few more minutes and plan your driving route before

Last but certainly not least, If you have a lot of luggage, don't park the car in the parking lot

In case you are involved in a Car Accident

These are the most important pieces of information to collect from the involved parties: full names, addresses,

Also try to get the names and contact information of anyone who witnessed the accident. Make a list of

Try to pinpoint the exact time and location of the accident. If the police get involved, ensure you get their contact information. They will let you know about their accident procedure.

If you purchased insurance through the car rental company, they will have to make the claim. If not, you may need to Make sure any involved parties are ok. Any injuries should be taken care of ASAP.

Call the police and/or ambulance (if necessary), and then call the car rental agency. Be as cooperative as possible.

Exchange information with the affected parties. Try to record everything on the scene. Your notes will be helpful.

Take pictures if possible. If you are on vacation, you will probably have a camera handy already.

File an accident report with the police, and report the claim to your own credit card company if you have one.

When returning the Car

Make all necessary arrangements to return the car on time, that includes looking the location of the car

Late return charges are high and arbitrary, secondly, if you are late, you probably won't have a car to

In case you return the car in a city location on Sunday, it might be that the station will be closed

In addition, lock the car, take the keys plus your rental contract and insert them into the de

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>