

Title:

How to Get a Hotel Discount

Word Count:

414

Summary:

You need to ASK if you want a discount. Here are ways to do it:

- * Search the internet, look for great deals. There are various types of hotels that offer great deals.
- * Plan your trip during the off season months. These are the times when big discounts are given.

Keywords:

hotel discount, cheap travel, discount travel

Article Body:

You need to ASK if you want a discount. Here are ways to do it:

- * Search the internet, look for great deals. There are various types of hotels that offer great deals.
- * Plan your trip during the off season months. These are the times when big discounts are given.
- * Call the hotel of your choice. Ask them about offers and discounts that they can give. List them.
- * Certain hotels can give discounts to credit card holders of certain card establishments. Ask them.
- * Ask if they give discounts to students or senior citizens.
- * Simply ask through the phone how can you qualify for a discount. If at certain day of the week.
- * Ask for certain packages. Hotels usually offer rooms with free breakfast.
- * Do name drop. If you know of someone who frequently stays there, mention his name. It can help.
- * Often, people in the military get good hotel rates. Usually, discounts are offered to government employees.
- * At off peak seasons, you could definitely ask for special rates. Then if they don't budge ask for more.
- * When negotiating, it is very important to write down all agreed discussions. Write too, the terms.
- * Upon arrival to the hotel, look around and ask for negotiations once more. For instance if you see a better deal elsewhere.

Enjoy your stay!

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>