

Title:

Norwich Union Travel Insurance Highlight Holiday Hazard Hotspots

Word Count:

426

Summary:

Just as you thought it was safe to go back in the water - Norwich Union travel insurance warns

Keywords:

holiday insurance, travel insurance, travel, holidays, tourism, vacations,

Article Body:

At a time when many UK families are getting excited about their forthcoming holiday Norwich Union

The report highlighted some old chestnuts but also revealed some less likely destinations. Mexico

The ugly face of crime raises its head in South Africa but both old British favorites, Spain and

Norwich Union were also quick to point out that most holidays go without hitch and the purpose

Norwich Union advise however that whilst the new European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) covers

When you consider the cost of your holiday a little extra expense in the form of adequate travel

Norwich Union offer the following tips for a hazard-free holiday:-

Lost/Misplaced belongings

Keep an eye on your belongings at all times. Do not leave them unattended and ensure you don't

Theft

Lock belongings in a safe when in a hotel.

Be aware of open windows and doors in your villa or hotel room ~ they attract opportunist thieves

Robbery with violence

Be aware of your surroundings and look purposeful. Avoid looking lost, confused or distracted

Find out the emergency phone numbers used in the area you are visiting.

Tummy problems

Eat food that has been freshly prepared or thoroughly cooked, avoiding food that has been left

Avoid ice in drinks in countries where you can't drink the tap water (often it is not made from

Be aware that salads may also have been washed in tap water.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>