

Title:

Our Canadian Immigration Story

Word Count:

1793

Summary:

After 6 weeks in Canada and the finality that we were no longer on vacation hit with a thud ~
I'd served 16 years in the Royal Air Force (RAF), so saying goodbye to a ^safe~ job seemed sur

Keywords:

canadian immigration, canada. immigration canada

Article Body:

After 6 weeks in Canada and the finality that we were no longer on vacation hit with a thud ~
I'd served 16 years in the Royal Air Force (RAF), so saying goodbye to a ^safe~ job seemed sur
We had discussed living in Canada in great length after my wife's sister had moved to Edmonton
We decided that we'd have to hire an immigration professional. When we opened up the Immigrati
We were inundated with forms and questionnaires and set to researching thoroughly what it all
It was announced that the Canadian Immigration visa system was changing; no-one knew what woul
We watched the horror of September 11th unfold; the aviation world collapsed and with the rest
We managed to spend two weeks at Andie's sisters in Calgary during October 2001, fitting in qu
With the police checks complete, we sent the application off to Kerry, who returned profession
The authorities backed down after threats of legal action by several Canadian Immigration Lawy
The call came out of the blue: we had been accepted subject to Medicals and were not being cal
We put the house on the market at the end of June 2002 ~ and had a buyer in 3 days. The date o
All 4 of us had to have medicals ~ the kids didn't have x-rays or blood tests but we each had
We checked out the different shipping agencies. Kerry recommended PSS shipping - a family run
While I was deployed away with the Air force, the house sale had stalled due to an argument be Eventually, Kerry phoned with the news that we were accepted and just had to sign some documen
In Canada, we were recommended a local realtor (Estate Agent). He helped us find a plot of lan
The day after we returned, we gathered up our documents and photo's and sent them recorded del
We researched and chose the shipping company for our Golden Retriever which would cost us more
We've been here 18 months now and can honestly say it has worked out better than we had ever i
I hope this will give you an insight into Canadian Immigration and inspire rather than disturb

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>