

Title:

Plymouth City guide, including Plymouth Hotels

Word Count:

1301

Summary:

Plymouth is the vibrant regional capital of Devon and Cornwall. It is a thriving modern city, a historic seafaring port and holiday centre with something for everyone.

Keywords:

Tours, Travel, Reservation.

Article Body:

Plymouth is the vibrant regional capital of Devon and Cornwall. It is a thriving modern city,

Places of interest:

There is plenty to do for all ages in and around Plymouth. A great place to start is the Plymouth

The Merchant's House is where you can learn all about the trading that plays a major part in Plymouth. Plymouth Dome, sited in front of Plymouth Hoe, overlooks the great natural harbour of Plymouth. The National Marine Aquarium offers a really amazing experience, where you are taken on an unforgettable tour. Plymouth City Museum and Art Gallery is the place to experience and enjoy engaging exhibitions. The Barbican village is an essential port of call for you during your visit. It is a maritime

Things to do:

Plymouth is where the coast and countryside are on the doorstep for you to explore. You can take

Mount Edgcumbe House is the former home of the Earls of Mount Edgcumbe. Set in Grade I Cornish gardens, Mount Edgcumbe House is a beautiful example of Georgian architecture. Buckland Abbey was originally a small but influential Cistercian monastery. The house, incorporated into the grounds of the abbey, is a fine example of 17th-century architecture. Kingsbridge Cookworthy Museum is where you can discover the story of Kingsbridge in their 17th-century buildings. Buckfast Abbey is a living monastery in the beautiful Dart Valley. There is a magnificent Abbey

Food & Drink:

When the sun goes down, it's time for the bright lights. International cuisine or traditional

Artillery Tower is a most unusual and intimate restaurant. It is set facing the sea and is one of the best places to enjoy a meal in Plymouth. Bistro Bené is a licensed waterfront restaurant in the Barbican. A haven tucked away in the mews, it is a great place to enjoy a meal. Tanners Restaurant is known throughout the region for fine quality and attention to every detail. Admiral Macbride is close to the Mayflower Steps Memorial and reputedly built on the site of

Plymouth Hotels & Accommodation:

From four-star luxury to rustic bed and breakfast, Plymouth and its surrounding area has accommodation

Copthorne Hotel Plymouth
Best Western Duke of Cornwall Hotel
Novotel Plymouth
Jewell In Plymouth Hotel
Grosvenor Hotel
Holiday Inn Plymouth
Rosalind Hotel
Riviera Hotel
Sunray Hotel

Moorlands Links Hotel
The New Continental
Elfordleigh Hotel
The Royal Fleet Club
Quality Hotel Plymouth

Entertainment:

For an evening out you can choose from a West End preview at the Theatre Royal, a concert or o

The Cooperage is Plymouth's premier venue if you like your music live. Located on Plymouth's
Plymouth Arts Centre has been around for over 50 years, and offers some of the best exhibitio
The Theatre Royal in Plymouth enjoys a mixed programme of drama from pantomime to ballet and

Whatever you enjoy, it is yours to discover in Plymouth all year round. With a strong maritime

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>