

Title:

Safety Tips For Travelers

Word Count:

852

Summary:

BASIC SAFETY RULES

Research the country of your destination, get as much information as possible about the places

- Obtain travel insur...

Keywords:

travel,tip,tips,traveler,advice,safety,trip

Article Body:

BASIC SAFETY RULES

Research the country of your destination, get as much information as possible about the places

- Obtain travel insurance, preferably with the plan that provides direct, immediate payment to
- Before you leave, photocopy your documents and tickets so it would be easier to replace them
- Keep a low profile. Try to blend in with the locals as best you can. Leave expensive jewelry
- Do not discuss your travel plans publicly.
- Stay alert, especially in high-risk countries.
- Do not expose your valuables (money, documents, jewelry, etc.), keep them locked in the hotel
- Carry only small amounts of cash.
- Wear a concealed money belt, keep your essential documents and money in it.
- Each time you use your credit card, keep an eye on it until it is returned to you. Check cre
- Never leave your personal items unattended.
- Respect local customs and regulations.
- If you get into trouble, contact the nearest embassy.
- If you are unfamiliar with the local language, write down some key phrases in the local lang
- In case of theft, get a police report immediately if you'll be making an insurance claim. Th

AIR TRAVEL SAFETY TIPS

Check in as fast as you can and do not delay in the main terminal area. Do not discuss your tr

HOTEL SAFETY TIPS

Get a card with the hotel's name and address. You can show it to a cab driver if you get lost.

Lower level floors are safer in case of fire. Although, avoid the first floor as it is the bes

Get yourself familiar with the location of stairways, fire escapes routes, emergency exits and

Keep your hotel room door locked at all times. Before opening the door to a stranger, verify w

Never leave your valuables (a camera, documents, jewelry, etc.) lying around where hotel emplo

Before leaving your room for the day, put the "Do not disturb" sign on your door to give the im

Use the hotel safe to store valuables.

Carry the room key with you, do not leave it at front desk.

Do not use your name when answering the phone.

When returning to your hotel at night, use the main entrance. Be observant before entering par

HOTEL FIRE SAFETY TIPS

If a fire starts take your key before leaving the room, as most hotel doors lock automatically.

STREET SAFETY TIPS

Buy a map, familiarize yourself with the city and location of your hotel. With the help of hotel staff, you can get a better understanding of the city and its surroundings.

Do not stay out on the streets late at night. When walking, remain on wide, well-lit streets. Never resist armed robbery, it could lead to violence.

We wish you a successful and safe trip!

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>