

Title:

Selecting The Right Hotel

Word Count:

714

Summary:

So you're going abroad, you've chosen your destination and now you have to choose a hotel. Ten

Keywords:

selecting the right hotel

Article Body:

So you're going abroad, you've chosen your destination and now you have to choose a hotel. Ten

But how do you sift through the amazing choices on offer? And more importantly, do you really

Traveler reviews can be helpful, but you need to exercise caution. They are often biased, some

You'll not be surprised to learn that hotels sometimes post their own glowing reviews, or that

Here are some of the key facts you should bear in mind:

1. Location: if it matters that your hotel is, for example, on the beach, close to the theme

2. Style: it is important to choose a hotel that makes you feel comfortable - contemporary or

3. Restaurants, Cafes and Bars: local color is great but the hotel's own restaurants and bars

4. Bedroom Facilities: you should always carefully consider the type of facilities you need fr

These things really do matter and any decent hotel directory should give you this sort of advi

5. Children's' Facilities: more important to the family traveler than the business traveler,

6. Leisure Facilities: the site should offer a detailed analysis of leisure services within th

7. Special Needs: the hotel directory site should advise the visitor of each hotel's special n

Finally and most importantly, the quality hotel directory inspection team should have visited

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>