

Title:

Travel South--Confessions of a First-Timer

Word Count:

600

Summary:

Entertainment, food, nonstop activities and people willing to talk your ear off were on the me

Keywords:

Group Travel Tours ,Singles Group Travel, Travel Tour Groups, Corporate Travel Planning, Touri

Article Body:

Entertainment, food, nonstop activities and people willing to talk your ear off were on the me

I was one of 35 media representatives from all over the US and Canada and, as a neophyte to bo

I became more comfortable, though, as I spent time with everyone on the various activities the

Saturday evening was the first event I attended. Four hundred years of Virginia music and cult

Sunday featured daytrips to different parts of the city (complete with performances by histori

Monday was all business for attendees. While suppliers, tour operators and buyers networked in

After lunch, press continued with another tour of the city (with snacks and local wine samplin

By the evening, everyone was feeling more comfortable with each other. After dinner, there was

It was a fun finale to my voyage to Travel South. In April's issue of Leisure Group Travel (ww

Be sure to tell us your stories from Travel South this year. Post a blog, or email me at Kelle

This article is sponsored by: www.grouptravelblog.com

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>