

Title:

Traveling First Class for Free

Word Count:

1405

Summary:

If you love traveling, live in or near a city with a large national or international airport,

Keywords:

vacation, hawaii, free, first class,

Article Body:

Have you always dreamed of owning your own business, having the time and money to visit exotic

If you love traveling, live in or near a city with a large national or international airport,

What is an air courier? It's a person who is hired to transport a specific item from one desti

And, before you start imagining sinister men in trench coats carrying guns with silencers, and

What you are asked to transport varies tremendously -- it can be almost anything -- legal docu

In fact, because of the "instant gratification" mindset today where we are used to information

Who can become an air travel courier? Anyone who is over 18, holds a valid passport and who is

Why is this a wonderful opportunity?

When sending a package by air, the shipper has two options -- the first is to send the package

In addition, especially when cargo is sent overseas, there are sometimes long delays getting t

For the air courier companies, who have to make sure the package is not only delivered, but re

On the other hand, if the same item is considered "personal baggage" and is carried with a tic

Plus, a person can book a ticket for a specific flight arriving at their destination at a spec

Because very few of the air courier companies have the resources to employ full-time couriers,

This is where you come in.

As an air courier, you are providing a valuable service in a growing market. And from the trav

Once you've been hired, the process is pretty simple: the company contacts you, to check your

At your destination, you'll be met by another company representative, who will take the baggag

How long do you get to stay? That depends on you and the air courier company. Sometimes your s

There are several ways to get started. There are actually companies who recruit air couriers,

But, you can also find the information completely on your own, and start off freelancing. Look

Also, make sure that you investigate each company before applying with them. You want to make

Timely tip: After submitting your application, follow up with a thank-you letter, on your new

Once you've gone through the process the first time, you'll have a much better idea about which

Timely Tip: Put together a database of the companies you've applied to, the date you applied,

Once you've been hired, don't be surprised if you start getting calls within the first couple

Here are some things to keep in mind when you start working:

1. Be professional. Remember that while shorts and flip flops may be comfortable for vacation,
2. Often the only baggage you get to take with you is hand carried. Invest in microfiber cloth
3. Give your own business card to the company representative in the country you travel to, and
4. Apply to all the companies you've decided you want to work for, and then follow up with the
5. Stay organized. Don't over commit yourself, and try never to have to cancel a trip.

Being an air courier is a great way to make money and see the world. Bon Voyage!

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>