

Title:

Trip Planning Tips For Travelers

Word Count:

738

Summary:

A well-planned vacation always means a happier, more enjoyable, more memorable and a safer trip. RESEARCH your travel destination.

Study the local climate and tourist seasons so you pick the best time to travel there and feel comfortable.

Learn about local laws and customs of the countries to which you are traveling. Find out the mores and manners.

Keywords:

travel,tip,tips,trip,planning,traveler,advice

Article Body:

A well-planned vacation always means a happier, more enjoyable, more memorable and a safer trip. RESEARCH your travel destination.

Study the local climate and tourist seasons so you pick the best time to travel there and feel comfortable.

Learn about local laws and customs of the countries to which you are traveling. Find out the mores and manners.

Read up on the places you plan to visit, chat to people who have been there, ask them for advice and tips.

Learn about festivals, holidays, shows in the country you are about to visit. Be sure that important dates are noted.

Learn the ENTRY REQUIREMENTS, provide documents required.

EmbassyWorld.com is a great source for finding out this information. Make sure you have a signed passport.

CHOOSE TRANSPORTATION.

TravelMake has an informative page on transportation tips for travelers with links to discount airlines.

SCHEDULE YOUR TRIP.

Do not overstress yourself with a tight timeline, leave some time for relaxation and rest between travel days.

BOOK ACCOMMODATIONS ahead.

Make all necessary reservations for your trip ahead of time. HEALTH and SAFETY.

We devoted one web page to health tips for travelers. There you will find advice on health risks and safety.

Do not forget to purchase a travel insurance for your trip, it will provide you with a safety net.

Plan a visit to your family doctor before your trip to ask his advice and to get an extra supply of medicine.

Prepare extra copies of your travel documents and the trip's itinerary, leave them with your neighbor or relative.

Notify by phone or register in person with your homeland embassy or consulate upon arrival.

SECURITY.

Ask your neighbor or relative to pick up your mail and look after your house while you are away.

If you are asked to deliver a package for a stranger, refuse. Exchange currency only at established

FAMILY TRAVEL.

Traveling children also need to have a valid passport. If it is required, you also have to provide

For bottle-feeding babies, bring prepared formula and bottled water. Bring along water or juice.

To avoid ear pressure problems, have little babies nurse or suck their bottles during airplane

TravelWithYourKids web site offers advice and tips for traveling families: the places to stay,

We wish you a successful and safe trip!

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>