

Title:

Why Mont Blanc Can And Must Become A UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Word Count:

893

Summary:

Mont Blanc is the third most visited natural wonder in the world, and the only one of the world

Keywords:

mont blanc, unesco, europe

Article Body:

Mont Blanc sits on the cross roads of Europe and it's exceptional value and symbolism is in ev
The UNESCO convention for world heritage adopted in 1972 allowed for the designation of sites
Mont Blanc is the highest mountain in Western Europe with an altitude of 4807m. With new techn
Due to the fascination with which Mont Blanc captures the spirit and the imagination the massi
The Mont Blanc Massif is also an important entity for flora and fauna. It is surrounded by dee
The glaciers of Mont Blanc cover a surface area of 170 square kilometres and is characterised
Mont Blanc's 17000 hectares of snow and ice also make it a huge reserve and of water and humid
Mont Blanc represents both nature and culture and stands at the heart of an overpopulated Euro
^Do we really need to save this type of condor? Not really Apart from the fact that by saving

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>