

Title:

Are All Car Insurance Companies Equal? Here Is What To Look For.

Word Count:

589

Summary:

Car insurance protects you against any financial loss that may happen due to an accident or th

Keywords:

car insurance, new car purchase, car accident, personal injury

Article Body:

Car insurance protects you against any financial loss that may happen due to an accident or th

Normally all car insurance companies have the same insurance policies. The premium to be paid

A car insurance policy may provide property, liability and coverage depending on the type of p

A car insurance policy usually consists of 6 types of coverage. As mentioned before a customer

The different types of coverage are :-

1) Bodily Injury Liability

This type of liability covers the expenses of injuries that you may cause to someone else whil

2) Medical Payments and Personal Injury Protection

This type of liability covers the expenses for the treatment of injuries to drivers and other

3) Property Damage Liability

This type of liability covers for damage to the other person's car and your car. It may also i

4) Collision

This type of liability covers expenses for damage to your car or the other person's car. Even

5) Comprehensive

This liability covers loses due to theft or damage to the car by something other than collisio

6) Uninsured and Underinsured Motorist Coverage

This liability covers damages to your car by another driver who is uninsured.

The coverages mentioned above are offered by all car insurance companies. In almost all states

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>