

Title:

Inspections Show Most Vehicles Need More Care

Word Count:

356

Summary:

Do you have your vehicle's oil changed every 3,000 miles? Do you regularly check the air press

Keywords:

Inspections Show Most Vehicles Need More Care

Article Body:

Do you have your vehicle's oil changed every 3,000 miles? Do you regularly check the air press

If you answered "no" to any of these questions, you're not alone.

According to the Car Care Council, 87 percent of vehicles inspected during National Car Care M

"Compared to the 90 percent failure rate last year, the 2004 inspection results indicate that

Even if you aren't mechanically savvy, there are things you can do to keep your car in safe an

Checking your car's fluids is the first step in keeping it running smoothly. Low fluid levels

Checking tire pressure and tread depth is equally important. During the Car Care Council's ins

Low tire pressure decreases gas mileage and tire life, and tires with worn tread are at great

Many roadside breakdowns can be avoided by motorists periodically checking their cars belts an

Drivers also should pay attention to the condition of their car's battery, air filter and vehi

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>