

Title:

Keeping Teens On The Road To Safety

Word Count:

387

Summary:

It's the parent's responsibility to teach kids how to be safe in the driver's seat.

Keywords:

Keeping Teens On The Road To Safety

Article Body:

According to the latest information from the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety (IIHS), te

It's the parents' responsibility to teach kids how to be safe in the driver's seat. My son bec

"It is more important than ever to think 'Safety First' before teens get behind the wheel and

Here are a few tips for parents:

1. Give the driver's seat to your teen. Recent reports suggest teens need between 25 and 50 ho

2. Limit the number of friends allowed in the car when your child drives.

3. Wear your seat belt. Some 63 percent of fatally injured teens are unrestrained. Lead by exa

4. Continue to periodically ride with your licensed teen. The sudden freedom he or she gains w

5. No cell phone. The IIHS says drivers with cell phones are four times more likely to be invo

6. Drinking and driving don't mix. Make yourself available should things get out of hand. Bloo

Membership in AutoVantage (<http://www.autovantage.com/>) begins with a two-month trial that cos

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>