

Title:

Perform Your Own Automobile Maintenance

Word Count:

709

Summary:

Today's cars can typically be expected to pass the 200,000 mile mark with consistent automobil

If you have some skill, but want to learn more look for courses in general re...

Keywords:

Article Body:

Today's cars can typically be expected to pass the 200,000 mile mark with consistent automobil

If you have some skill, but want to learn more look for courses in general repairs and mainten

You will want to keep track of all maintenance performed on your car. You can do this in a log

Most software allows you to create a service schedule and will remind you when it's time to pe

Your owner's manual will give you some basic information about when certain maintenance tasks

3000 Mile Maintenance

Change the oil in your engine every 3000 miles. The filter should be changed at the same time.

5000-10,000 Miles:

Have your tires rotated and balanced every five to ten thousand miles. This helps the tires we

15,000 Miles:

Change the air filter every 15,000 miles. A clean air filter improves the fuel economy of your

30,000 Miles:

Check the fluid level on your transmission. The owner's manual will have information about the

50,000 Miles:

Change the coolant at 50,000 miles. See the owner's manual for directions on how to perform th

Remember to take care of your car's finish. You want the paint to remain in good condition for

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>