

Title:

Snow and Your Car

Word Count:

505

Summary:

Are you ready for winter? Importantly, is your car ready? The following tips can help you prep

Keywords:

cargo liner, car fog lights, grille, car batteries, exhaust systems, windshields, ice, snow, f

Article Body:

Welcome to Winter! Snow, ice, and cold can be especially challenging to the body and mind, as

Check under the hood. Make sure that your battery and all of its connections are clean

Look at the windshield. Besides obvious cracks in your windshield which you can have re

Observe the tires. Properly inflated all season tires are usually all that you need for

Carry an emergency kit. It doesn't take much to get stranded during winter. Even the be

*Flash light with spare batteries

*Jumper cables

*Tire chains

*Ice scraper/brush

*Sand or kitty litter for traction

*Auto tools

*Wire coat hanger

*Flares

*Candles, matches

*Distress sign

*Medical kit

*Gas line antifreeze; ice lock antifreeze spray

If you frequently travel back roads and find yourself in remote areas, carrying an extra set o

If you find yourself stuck in snow, make sure that the exhaust pipe is free of all snow if you

You can survive the hazards of winter by taking a little extra care and caution. Properly equi

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>