

Title:

Women 'More Concerned About Fuel Increases'

Word Count:

305

Summary:

The results of a poll held in Australia have found that women drivers are more concerned about

Women, whose greater consideration for safe driving in many cases results in much lower car in

Some 86 per cent of women motorists said they were worried about the ever rising price of petr

Keywords:

Kwik-Fit, Insurance, Car insurance, Motor Insurance, Womens Insurance, Women Drivers

Article Body:

The results of a poll held in Australia have found that women drivers are more concerned about

Women, whose greater consideration for safe driving in many cases results in much lower car in

Some 86 per cent of women motorists said they were worried about the ever rising price of petr

Furthermore, 66 per cent of women surveyed said they were trying to economise on their overall

Almost half of women drivers revealed that they were looking to purchase a small car. Those sh

Contrastingly, under a third of men said they were considering buying a small car.

Petrol price worries are not unique to Australian women drivers - both male and female British

And like in Australia, many men and women drivers in Britain may also be considering purchasin

Buying a new car often provides a good opportunity to review car insurance policies and some p

A survey earlier this year from the car manufacturers 'Chrysler Group' found that men and wome

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>