The Preterite Tense

The preterite tense is another topic that seems to confuse English speakers of Spanish. English

For example, in English , we can use the past tense of the verb [^]to go[~] (i.e. [^]went[~]) to describe

1. I went to the shopping mall three times.

2. When I was young, I went to the shopping mall.

(Note: In English, for number [^]2[~] you could also say [^]When I was young, I used to go to the shopping mall.

Both sentences use the same verb [^]went[~] to describe the action that took place in the past. But

Yo fui al almacén tres veces.

Cuando yo era joven, yo iba al almacén.

We will cover the [^]imperfect[~] verb tense in greater detail in a future lesson. But for now, t

The preterite verb tense is generally used to tell what happened (1) during a fixed period of

(1) During a fixed period of time:
